

Source Lift and how we care about Open Source

Jona Azizaj @jonatoni

Who we are

Our mission is making travel better.

We are changing the world of travel and bringing everyone closer together physically.

Our algorithm – Virtual Interlining – allows users to combine flights and ground transportation from more than 750 carriers, including many that do not normally cooperate. We also provide the industry-leading Kiwi.com Guarantee.

Why we care about Open Source?

If it wasn't for the open source community and all the tools they provided for us, our job would have been immensely more difficult.

Join Orbit!

We're searching for a UI designer who can help us improve cross-platform components. Experience with designing for mobile is a must-have.

Write us

Orbit aims to bring order and consistency to Kiwi.com products and processes behind building them.

We opened our design system to everyone. As a company, we believe that by giving people resources to create travel products easily, we all will make travel better. Together.

Although components are the core part of Orbit, we are not just another component library.
